

I strongly object to the consolidation of news media, i.e. newspapers, T.V. stations, radio stations, etc. under one parent company. The resulting concentration of ownership could be deeply destructive to our democracy.
We need fair and balanced news to allow for diverse opinions.